WILL OF MR. DOWNEY

HE MAKES HANDSOME BEQUESTS TO CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

Pricade, and Servants-City Hall Court News.

The will of Mr. Mark Downey was admitted to probate in the Chancery Court Yesterday. The estate is valued at $250. and Mrs. Catharine Downey Hagan, sister of the deceased, is executrix, and Messrs. Samuel Sinton and Thomas G. on, of this city, are executors of the will. The executors qualified, giving bond in the sum of $300,000 each with no se

After providing for the payment of all als just debts, and his funeral expenses, Mr. Downey's will is, in substance, as "I give and bequeath to the Friends" Asylum for Colored Orphans, $5,90; to the Richmond Male Orphan Asylum, $5,600; and to the Little Sisters of the Poor, $10,000. I would have made a bequest to St. Joseph's Female Academy, but that institution or corporation is already well institution or corporation is already well endowed. I thought it tetter to leave a large bequest to the Little Sisters of the Poor, and to omit the St. Joseph's Yemale Academy and Orphan Asylom from among my beneficiaries. I would also have made a bequest to the R. E. Lee Camp. No. 1, C. V., but as I have already erected a good and substantial cottage for said camp within its grounds hear the city of Richmond, and for other reasons not necessary here to mention. I have thought it best to revoke a bequest made to said camp in a former will, and not to include said camp among the beneficiaries of this, my last will and testament.

TO HIS FRIENDS.

TO HIS FRIENDS.

"To each of my two cousins, Henora D'Sullivan and Julia O'Sullivan, of the city of Brocklyn, N. Y., or to the sur-Nivors of them, the sum of $5,600. In the event of either or both of them dying before me the said bequest or bequests to her or to them, so dying, shall lapse, and become part of the residue of my estate hereinafter bequeathed and devised to my said sister, Catharine Downey Hagan.

Hagan.

"To each of the children of my nephew,
Florence T. Downey, late of Charleston, S. C., deceased, the sum of $5,000, and,
also, to my cousin, Arabella Gordanrich, of Queenstown, Ireland, daughter of my cousin, Edward O'Sullivan, late of the tity of Cork, Ireland, deceased, the like sum of $5,000.

"To William A. Pelt, of Baltimore, Md., the sum of $5,000.

the sum of $3,000, and to Edward F. Cullen, of Texas, the like sum of $3,000. I make these bequests in token of my regard and esteem I have for these young friends, who were brought up by me, and for whom I have the highest regard and respect.

"To Mrs. Thomas W. Doswell, of Han-over county, Va., the sum of $2,500, and to Mrs. Thomas G. Peyton, of the sald city of Richmond, the like sum of $2,500as a mark of my esteem for them per sonally, and as the wives of my persona lop and Thomas G. Peyton, the sum of $500, which legacy is hereby given to each of them, in addition to the compensation allowed to them by law, as commissioners of my estate. THE ENTIRE RESIDUE.

my sister, Catharine Downey Hagan the entire residue of my estate, devision and bequeathing to her all said residue, whether real, personal, or mixed, subject only to the following charge-namely, that she pay annually to my colored manuservant, Stephan Clark, during his natural life, the sum of $200 which appuits shall. mervant, Stephan Clark, during his natural life, the sum of $300, which annuity shall be pald to him in equal quarterly instalments of $75 each, the first instalment to be paid to him on the first day of the month immediately succeeding the administration on my estate by my said executrix or either of my said executrix or either of my said executrix or either of my said executrix on the other quarterly instalments to be paid every three months succeeding thereafter, and in no one year shall said payments together exceed said sum of $300. This provision is intended for a comfortable support and maintenance of the said Stephen Clark, and shall in no manner be subject to his control or to his contracts and engagements before said instalments become respectively due and payable. And if any attempt thall be made by the said Stephen Clark or by any of his creditors to anticipate any of said payments by stying orders thereon or by garnisheeing or attaching or hy any other medians. or attaching, or by any other mode of process, at law, or otherwise, so as to subject said annulty or any part thereo to the payment of his debts before said nurterly instalments, respectively bave been actually taid to the said Stephen Clark in his own person, then in that case I direct my said sister. Catharine Downey Hagan, instead of paying said instalments to the said Stephen Clark in person, to apply and expend the same as they become due, respectively, and payable in such manner as she, the said Catharine Downey Hagan, shall deem best for the support and mainte-pance of the said Stephen Clark, but under no circumstances to pay any part thereof to any creditor holding any order on her from the said Stephen Chark or to any creditor attempting to attach or garnishee said annuity or any part thereof."

TWO IMPORTANT CODICILS. A couple of quite important codicils re added to the will. The first bequeaths to the Little Sisters of the Poor an additional sum of $39,000 in money, making $40,000 all told to that institution.

To his cousin, Arabella Gordanick, of Queenstown, Ireland, he gives $10,000 in Addition to the legacy of $5,000 mentioned in the will.

To the Catholic bishop of Richmond be gives $1,000, and to his friend, John R. Ellyson, of Richmond, the sum of $1,000,

SOME FINE COLTS FOALED.

Pedigrees of a Few That Promise to Make Good Racers.

There have probably been more highly bred colts folded this year than ever before in one season in this State. There several stock-farms in the vicinity of Richmond, and the report from each is to the effect that the season has been a most successful one. Horse-fanciers are beginning to realize the importance of good blood, and breeders are, therefore, being encouraged. Quite a large number of Virginia-bred youngsters are receiving their education at the training schools bear here, and as the Virginia State Agricultural and Mechanical Society has offered very liberal purses for races for Virginia coits, the chances are that the yearling and 2-year-old records will be considerably lowered at the Exposition races this fall.

races this fall. Among the most fancy-bred youngsters feeled this spring is one belonging to Messrs, John Chamblin and William G. Owens. This royally-pedigreed little fellow will be known in the horse-world as King Egwood early Messers. John Chang-pedigreed little Cowens. This royally-pedigreed little is low will be known in the horse-world as King Egwood, and he now has every promise of being a racer. The little King was born May 12th. He is chestnut in color, with white feet and white mark in face. He is by Egwood-218/g; dam Gippy Patterson, by Messenger Duroc; aire of twenty in the 2:20 list, second dam Madeline, by Abdallah Star; third dam Fannie Ficke, dame of Jerome, 2:27, by Young Almack; fourth dam by Flowers Sportsman, son of Chancellor, by Mambrino.

VIRCINIA GRAND CAMP.

The Body to Meet in Alexandria Next Wednesday.

The Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans of Virginia will meet in Alexandria on June 6th. There are thirty-two subordinate camps in the Grand Camp, and it is expected that 150 delegates will attend the meeting of the grand body.

One of the most important matters to be brought before the Grand Camp is the report of the Committee on a Southern School History. This committee has, it is understood, several histories in manuis understood, several histories in manuscript in its possession, and will convene in Alexandria in advance of the assembling of the Grand Camp, to consider these and the report of the History Committee made at the recent meeting of the Confederate veterans in Birmingham, Ala.

Reports will be made to the Grand Camp by the Committee on Sons of Veterans. The body will be tendered a banguet and officers will be elected for the quet, and officers will be elected for the Rev. Mr. Coleman, grand chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Kentucky, who delivered a Masonic lecture at St. Albans Hall last Thursday night, will return to Richmond, and deliver the same lecture at St. Albans Hall next Saturday night. Those Masons who heard him last week speak in high terms of the discourse. Mr. Coleman has spent more time in the Holy Land than, perhaps, any other American traveller, and, being an ardent Mason, he ingratiated himself with the Oriental Masons, and had the privilege of witnessing what few Americans have oriental Masons, and had the privilege of witnessing what few Americans have ever witnessed—an Oriental initiation. Personally, this gentleman is known to most of the distinguished Masons of the United States, and to many of the best-known Masons of Europe. He has friends on every continent; yet, notwithstanding his fame, he is exceedingly molest and un-
